About XIME & the Simulation Workshop:

The story of XIME's journey is one of sheer determination and grit. It symbolizes the vision and resolve of our founder Prof. J. Philip, to build a world class institution, rising as it has done from its humble beginning in 1991. XIME has three fully residential campuses in Bangalore, Kochi and Chennai, offering its flagship AICTE approved PGDM programme, MDPs, FDPs and other programmes for specific industrial sectors.

The Simulation Workshop is designed as a 10-hour program exclusively for faculty members and corporate L&D trainers. The participants will have a detailed walk-through on the elements of administering simulations in a class – the initial brief, simulation setup, controls during play, debrief and review. The participants will have the opportunity to play the simulation as a student as well as comprehend the facilitator roles. The workshop will be conducted virtually on zoom platform for the participants to attend the programme from the comfort of their home or office. The detailed programme schedule is as follows:
